

Spanish Basic II

Course code: SPN 102

Total contact hours: 60 hours

Pre-requisite: SPN 101

Course Overview

Students use lexical, syntactic structures and learned formulas to hold a conversation in which they make themselves understood by the interlocutor, and thus negotiate needs according to different daily life situations.

Students will also be able to describe people, places, narrate events and stories, highlight interests and future plans. They will obtain skills to communicate relevant information from oral and written texts, with the purpose of recognizing topics and maintaining a conversation despite the lack of familiarity in the culture.

This course answers the question: How to communicate effectively in Spanish in simple and personal everyday contexts?

To answer this question the following topics will be studied:

- Present indicative: regular and irregular verbs.
- Simple past indicative: regular and irregular verbs.
- Direct, indirect and reflexive pronouns
- Formal imperative singular and plural
- Simple future indicative: regular and irregular verbs.
