

Speaking Techniques

Course code: SPN 340

Total contact hours: 60 hours

Pre-requisite: SPN 301, Advanced I

Course Overview

Upon completion of the course, students are expected to be able to function with confidence and with little effort, in different discursive interactions, since they will acquire the sufficient linguistic resources that allow them to communicate fluently and spontaneously in situations with a certain degree of complexity or with external interference. In addition, students will be able to recognize the meaning of communicative terms as mediating forms for effective communication.

Students will be able to present various topics about: cultural contrasts, political issues of current interest, art, and education, among others.

This course answers the question: How to interact with an audience using effective and conducive techniques to communicate topics of interest to a specific listener or recipient?
