

Selected Topics in Spanish Literature

Course code: SPN 4330

Total contact hours: 48 hours

Pre-requisite: SPN- 202, Intermediate 2

Course Overview

Student will acquire a general vision of Spanish literature from its beginnings to the first half of contemporary literature (20th century). In addition, they will become familiar with a general overview of each period in which Spanish literature has been divided, as well as its main characteristics. The most representative texts of the exponents of each period are also studied.

This course answers the question: How can the student of Spanish as a second language acquire a chronological perspective of the development of Spanish literature from its beginnings until the beginning of the 20th century and recognize its main representatives?

The following skills will be promoted throughout the course:

- Ability to understand literary texts from different eras of Spanish literature.
- Ability to recognize the characteristics of each literary movement studied.
- Ability to locate literary works and their representatives over time.
- Ability to comment on universal themes present in the texts.